

Reader's Reviews

The Last of Her Kind by JoAnn Rackear Goldrich

★★★★★ FANTASTIC READ

By Linda S. Fairmanon August 15, 2016

Format: Paperback

"This was my favorite read of the summer. This book is so thought-provoking, lends itself to introspection and I could not put it down. The depth of characters - phenomenal! I enjoy JoAnn Goldrich's writing style. I cannot wait for her next book!"

★★★★★ I LOVE A GOOD SCIENCE FICTION STORY AND THAT IS WHAT...

"I love a good science fiction story and that is what Goldrich gave me! The author takes us from the dark depths of despair and into the light of hope and love with such incredible visuals. The writing is like a stadium seating, 3D, surround sound experience! Brava!"

★★★★★ HOOKED FROM THE START

"This story had me sucked in from the start. The author takes us on a journey with her main character that is wonderful and chilling at the same time. The combining of humanity and the metaphysical is thought provoking, it left me asking questions of myself as these stories normally do. I think for me, the underlying message, well I'll let you decide for yourself what that underlying message is. I highly recommend this book. If it leaves you confused, wait a little while and pick it up again, I don't think you'll be confused any longer."

★★★★★ A FINE READ AT ANY AGE

Format: Paperback

"Vivid images of an urban wasteland. Odors of death and near death. Lost and alone in an acrid darkness. My senses were under attack when I first began reading this new novel by Goldrich. And then word by word, page by page the author guided me from horrific thoughts of desolation to the joys that come with celebrating life. A fine read for anyone of any age though I suspect it may be especially appealing to young adults."
